

(62) Al-Jumu'a: Friday

In the Name of Allah The All Merciful, The Most Merciful.

1. Praises Allah does what is in the heavens and Earth, The King, The Holy, The Most Esteemed, The Most Judicious.
2. He is the One Who dispatched among the illiterate a messenger from them who recites upon them His signs, and ameliorates them, and teaches them the writ and judiciousness - and for, they were from before surely in manifest deviation -
 3. ...and others from them yet to follow them; and He is The Most Esteemed, The Most Judicious.
 4. That is the favor of Allah, He provides it (to) whomever He wills; and Allah is the Possessor of the Grand Favor.
5. The simile of the ones who were loaded (with) the Torah then carried it not, is the simile of the donkey carrying books; miserable is the simile of the people, the ones who belied the signs of Allah - and Allah guides not the oppressing people.
6. Say: "O you the ones who Hadu, if you claim that you are trustees of Allah outside of the (rest of) humanity, then wish for death if you are ever truthful."
7. And they will not wish for it ever with what their hands forwarded, and Allah is most knowledgeable of the oppressors.
8. Say: "Assuredly Death, the one that you are fleeing from, then assuredly it is meeting you; then are you reverted to the Knower of the unseen and the witnessed, then He will apprise you of what you were ever performing."
9. O you the ones who have faith, when cried for are the prayers of the day of Friday, then pursue unto the remembrance of Allah and leave the selling; that is better for you if you were ever knowing.
10. So when concluded is the prayer then spread out in the land and seek from the favors of Allah; and remember Allah abundantly so you might prosper.
11. Yet when they saw a trade or a distraction they disbanded unto it and left you risen. Say: "What is at Allah is better than the distraction and the trade, and Allah is the best of provisioners."
