

(78) An-Naba': The News

In the Name of Allah The All Merciful, The Most Merciful.

1. About what are they questioning?
2. About the grand news,
3. ...that which they are in it differing.
4. Nay! They will know.
5. Then... Nay! They will know.
6. Have We not made the Earth smoothed?
7. And the mountains as stakes?
8. And We created you as pairs.
9. And We made your sleep as repose.
10. And We made the night as a garment.
11. And We made the morning as sustenance.
12. And We built above you seven firmaments.
13. And We made a glowing lantern.
14. And We descended from the juicers torrential water.
15. So that We issue by it grains and vegetation,
16. ...and arboreous gardens.
17. Assuredly the Day of Separation was an appointment.
18. The day blown into is the horn, so you arrive in droves.
19. And opened was the sky, thus it was ever doors.
20. And made to wayfare were the mountains, thus they were ever a mirage.
21. Assuredly Hell was ever a lookout.
22. For the tyrants, a retreat.
23. They subsist in it eons.
24. They taste not in it coolness nor drink,

25. ...except scalding water and ooze.
26. Appropriate recompense.
27. They were not aspiring (for) an account.
28. And they belied Our signs, belying!
29. And everything We have reckoned (in) a writ.
30. So taste, since We will not increase you except (in) torment.
31. Assuredly for the venerators is triumph.
32. Orchards and grapevines,
33. ...and buxom compeers,
34. ...and brimming goblets.
35. They hear not in it drivel nor belying.
36. Recompense from you Lord, a giving calculated.
37. Lord of the heavens and Earth and whatever is between them, Ar-Rahman, they own not from Him speech.
38. The day (when) stands the spirit and the angels in rows talking not, except whomever Ar-Rahman permitted and he said correctness.
39. That is the Day of Right, so whoever wills took a retreat to his Lord.
40. Assuredly We warned you (of) a near torment, the day one looks at what his hands forwarded, and says the repudiator "If only I were soil."
